

NEW YORK LIVING WILL

This Living Will has been prepared to conform to the law in the State of New York, as set forth in the case In re Westchester County Medical Center, 72 N.Y. 2d 517 (1988). In that case the Court established the need for “clear and convincing” evidence of a patient’s wishes and stated that the “ideal situation is one in which the patient’s wishes were expressed in some form of writing, perhaps a “living will.”

mind, make this statement as a directive to be followed if I become permanently unable to participate in decisions regarding my medical care. These instructions reflect my firm and settled commitment to decline medical treatment under the circumstances indicated below:

I direct my attending physician to withhold or withdraw treatment that merely prolongs my dying, if I should be in an incurable or irreversible mental or physical condition with no reasonable expectation of recovery, including but not limited to: (a) a terminal condition; (b) a permanently unconscious condition; or (c) a minimally conscious condition in which I am permanently unable to make decisions or express my wishes.

I direct that my treatment be limited to measures to keep me comfortable and to relieve pain, including any pain that might occur by withholding or withdrawing treatment.

While I understand that I am not legally required to be specific about future treatments if I am in the condition(s) described above I feel especially strongly about the following forms of treatment:

- I do not want cardiac resuscitation
- I do not want mechanical respiration.
- I do not want artificial nutrition and hydrations.
- I do not want antibiotics.

Cross out any statements listed above that do not reflect your wishes

However, I do want maximum pain relief, even if it may hasten my death.
